However, the Management Board, with the approval of the Supervisory Board, is entitled to exclude shareholders' subscription rights for one or more capital increases under the Authorized Capital 2021,

- (2) The Supervisory Board may appoint a member of the Management Board as CEO and one member as vice-chairman. Deputy Management Board members may be appointed.

Section 9

RESOLUTIONS BY THE MANAGEMENT BOARD, RULES OF PROCEDURE

- (1) Votes on the Management Board are decided by a simple majority of the votes cast unless the Management Board's rules of procedure stipulate otherwise. Should a vote be tied, the chairman will have a casting vote; this does not apply if the Management Board is comprised of two people. He is also responsible for convening Management Board meetings.
- (2) The Management Board may set its own rules of procedure by unanimous vote, subject to the Supervisory Board's consent, insofar as the Supervisory Board does not exercise its own right to define rules of procedure. Any rules of procedure agreed by the Management Board must be approved by the Supervisory Board.

Section 10

REPRESENTING THE COMPANY

- (1) The Company is represented by only one member of the Management Board if only one Management Board member is appointed; if the Management Board consists of several members, then the Management Board is represented:
 - jointly by two Management Board members or
 - by one Management Board member jointly with an authorized representative or
 - by only one Management Board member if a representative authority was granted by the Supervisory Board.
- (2) The Supervisory Board may release one or all members of the Management Board from the limitations of multiple representation (Section 181 option 2 of the German Civil Code (Bürgerliches Gesetzbuch, BGB)), without prejudice to the provisions of Section 112 German Stock Corporation Act.

Section 11

MANAGEMENT

- (3) The Management Board is obliged to keep the Supervisory Board informed on an ongoing basis to the extent required by law. In accordance with statutory provisions, further reporting obligations may be laid out in the Management Board's rules of procedure."

II. SUPERVISORY BOARD

Section 12 COMPOSITION

- (1) The Supervisory Board shall have five (5) members.
- (2) Supervisory Board members are appointed until the end of the General Meeting which adopts a resolution to formally approve the actions of the Supervisory Board in the fourth financial year following commencement of their term of office begins, unless the resolution appointing them specifies a shorter term of office. The financial year in which office is assumed is not counted. Should a Supervisory Board member depart before completion of the term of office, a successor will be appointed for the remainder of the term of office, unless the General Meeting resolves to appoint them for a longer term.
- (3) Ex-members of the Company's Management Board may not be members of the Supervisory Board if two Supervisory Board members are already ex-members of the Management Board. Supervisory Board members may not be directors of publicly listed companies or already hold five Supervisory Board appointments in publicly listed companies outside the group, or hold executive or advisory positions with major competitors of the Company. The statutory provisions regarding the composition and qualification of members of the Supervisory Board remain unaffected.
- (4) The General Meeting may appoint one or more replacement members for all Supervisory Board members who will become members of the Supervisory Board in the order in which they are appointed as soon as any Supervisory Board member retires from the Supervisory Board before their term of office ends, unless the General meeting appoints a successor before a Supervisory Board member retires. The term of office of replacement members succeeding to the Supervisory Board ends at the end of the General Meeting at which a successor to the departed Supervisory Board member is appointed or when the departed Supervisory Board member's term of office ends, whichever is the sooner.
- (5) Any Supervisory Board member may resign their office for no particular reason by giving the Chairman of the Supervisory Board and the Management Board at least one month's notice in writing. This period of notice may be waived if the Chairman of the Supervisory Board consents. They may resign their office with immediate effect for pertinent cause.

Section 13

CHAIRING THE SUPERVISORY BOARD

- (1) The Supervisory Board will appoint a Chairman and Vice-chairman from amongst its numbers. Insofar as a shorter term was not agreed upon during their election, the Chairman and the Vice-chairman's term of office corresponds to their term of office as members of the Supervisory Board.
- (2) Should no simple majority be obtained when electing the Chairman or his deputy in the first round of voting, a more limited election will be held between the two applicants who obtained the most votes. Should the second round vote be tied, the vote of the oldest member of the Supervisory Board will count twice.
- (3) Should the Chairman leave office before his term of office ends, this will not affect his deputy's term of office, and vice versa. Should the Chairman or deputy leave office before their term of office ends, the Supervisory Board will elect a new Chairman or Vice-chairman for the departing member's remaining term of office.
- (4) The Chairman of the Supervisory Board, or, his deputy should he be incapacitated, chairs Supervisory Board meetings, and decides the order of the agenda and the voting rules. The Chairman, or his deputy should he be incapacitated, issues declarations by the Supervisory Board and its committees on the Supervisory Board's behalf. The Chairman and his deputy may also receive notices intended for the Supervisory Board.

- (2) Supervisory Board meetings are convened by the Chairman, or by his deputy if he is incapacitated. They may be convened in writing, by fax, telephone or e-mail, at 14 days' notice, not including the date on which the notice of meeting is sent and the date of the meeting itself. The Chairman may reduce the notice period in an emergency if the notice of meeting has demonstrably reached all Supervisory Board members. The Chairman may suspend or defer meetings once called.

- (3) Notices of meetings must be accompanied by details of the agenda. Applications for resolutions must be submitted in good time and in a form that permits written voting.
- (4) No amendments or additions may be made to the agenda once the notice period for convening a meeting ends unless none of the Supervisory Board members object.
- (5) The Supervisory Board is quorate if not less than half its members, and not less than three members, including the Chairman or deputy, participate in the adoption of resolutions. Members are deemed to participate in the adoption of resolutions even if they abstain from voting. If Supervisory Board members are absent, they may participate in the adoption of resolutions by the Supervisory Board by submitting written votes through other Supervisory Board members.

Section 16

RESOLUTIONS BY THE SUPERVISORY BOARD

- (1) Supervisory Board resolutions are generally adopted at meetings. Resolutions on items not included in the agenda as communicated with notices of meetings cannot be adopted unless no members object. In that event, any members who are absent must be given an opportunity of objecting to the adoption of a resolution retrospectively within such a reasonable period of time as the Chairman may decide; the resolution will then only be binding if no absent member objects to it within the time allowed.
- (2) Outside meetings, resolutions may be adopted in writing, by telephone, fax or e-mail if determined so by the Chairman and if at least half of the members of which the Supervisory Board shall consist take part in the passing of the resolution. Resolutions are also permitted by way of transmitting votes through use of different communication channels as well as by votes being partially cast in the meeting and partially cast – also afterwards – through other permitted communication channels by absent members. The Chairman shall determine a reasonable time period for casting votes. The Supervisory Board members shall have no right to object against the orders made by the Chairman pursuant to this Section 16.2. The Chairman will record resolutions adopted outside meetings in writing and communicate them to all Supervisory Board members.
- (3) Resolutions by the Supervisory Board require a simple majority of the votes cast unless another majority is required by law. This also applies to elections. Abstentions count as votes against.

Section 17

MINUTES OF SUPERVISORY BOARD MEETINGS AND RESOLUTIONS

- (1) Minutes must be produced of Supervisory Board meetings and signed by the Chairman, stating where and when the meeting was held, who was present, items on the agenda, the essence of the proceedings and the resolutions adopted by the Supervisory Board. The Chairman, or, if he is incapacitated, his deputy, must send signed copies of the minutes out to all Supervisory Board members.
- (2) Where Supervisory Board resolutions are adopted outside meetings, the provisions of para. (1) apply mutatis mutandis, except that the minutes must also state the means by which the resolution was adopted.

Section 18

DUTIES OF THE SUPERVISORY BOARD

- (1) The Supervisory Board has all the duties and rights assigned to it by law, these Articles of Association and otherwise. Supervisory Board members are not bound by orders or instructions.
- (2) The Supervisory Board may stipulate rules of procedure for the Management Board stating that its consent is required for certain acts of business relating to the Company or its subsidiaries, especially such acts of business that fundamentally change the Company's assets, financial condition or results of earnings or risk exposure. Should the Management Board issue its own results of procedure pursuant to Section 9 para. (2), the Supervisory Board may not consent to this unless it includes a list of transactions for which consent is required pursuant to (1) above. The Supervisory Board may also resolve to subject other transactions to its consent.
- (3) The Supervisory Board may resolve amendments to the Articles of Association that only affect the wording.

Section 19

COMMITTEES

- (1) The Supervisory Board may form committees from amongst its numbers and define their powers in its rules of procedure, and may delegate its executive powers to such committees insofar as the law allows (executive committees).
- (2) Committees must report to the Supervisory Board regularly on their work.
- (3) Internally, committees are subject to the provisions of Sections 15, 16 and 17 mutatis mutandis.

Section 20 CONFIDENTIALITY

- (1) Supervisory Board members may not disclose any confidential information and secrets which become known to them through being on the Supervisory Board, even once they leave office. Should a Supervisory Board member intend to disclose information to third parties where it cannot be ruled out with any certainty that such information is confidential or represents Company secrets, they must inform the Chairman first and allow him opportunity to comment.
- (2) Departing Supervisory Board members must return all confidential documents relating to the Company in their possession to the Chairman or the Vice-chairman of the Supervisory Board.

Section 21 REMUNERATION OF THE SUPERVISORY BOARD

- (1) In addition to the reimbursement of its expenses, each member of the Supervisory Board receives a remuneration of EUR 20,000 per financial year. If a member of the Supervisory Board was not a member of the Supervisory Board for the whole fiscal year, there is only a remuneration claim in proportion to the actual term of office for the entire financial year. In addition, the members of the Supervisory Board receive EUR 1,000 for each Supervisory Board meeting (attendance fee) in which they participate in person, but for a maximum of five meetings per financial year. The Chairman receives twice the amount, and the Vice-chairman receives 1.5 times the remuneration.
- (2) Supervisory Board members will also receive reimbursement for any value added tax they incur on their disbursements and/or Supervisory Board remunerations insofar as they are entitled to charge the company VAT separately and exercise that right.
- (3) The company will ensure that the members of its Supervisory Board are included in an insurance policy against financial loss liability as part of a D&O insurance policy taken out by the Company in its own interests for its executive bodies and certain directors, insofar as such an insurance policy exists. The company will pay the premiums on such insurance.

The registration must be received by the Company or another place specified in the invitation in text form in the German or English language within the statutory period prior to the Annual General Meeting. The Management Board is authorized to provide for a shorter period of registration, to be measured in days, instead of the statutory period.

Shareholders must further provide evidence of their entitlement to attend the Annual General Meeting and to exercise their voting rights. For this purpose, a proof of share ownership in text form issued by the last intermediary according to § 67c Section 3 AktG is required. The evidence must refer to a date to be determined in the invitation in accordance with the statutory requirements and must be received by the Company or one of the other offices specified in the invitation within the statutory period before the Annual General Meeting. Section 25 VOTING RIGHTS

Each share carries one vote at the General Meeting.

Section 26 CHAIRING GENERAL MEETINGS

- (1) General Meetings are chaired by the Chairman of the Supervisory Board or another Supervisory Board member he nominates. Should neither the Chairman nor another Supervisory Board member nominated for this purpose by the Chairman be present or prepared to chair the General Meeting, the Supervisory Board will appoint the chairman of the general meeting. If a chairman of the general meeting cannot be determined in accordance with the aforementioned procedure, the General Meeting will elect the chairman of the general meeting.
- (2) The chairman of the general meeting chairs the meeting and determines the order of consultation and voting procedures. The chairman of the general meeting may limit shareholders' rights to ask questions and speak to a reasonable time.
